Instruction for Remote system

VENSET®

Article no.: 905 + 906

Remote receiver   Remote emitter
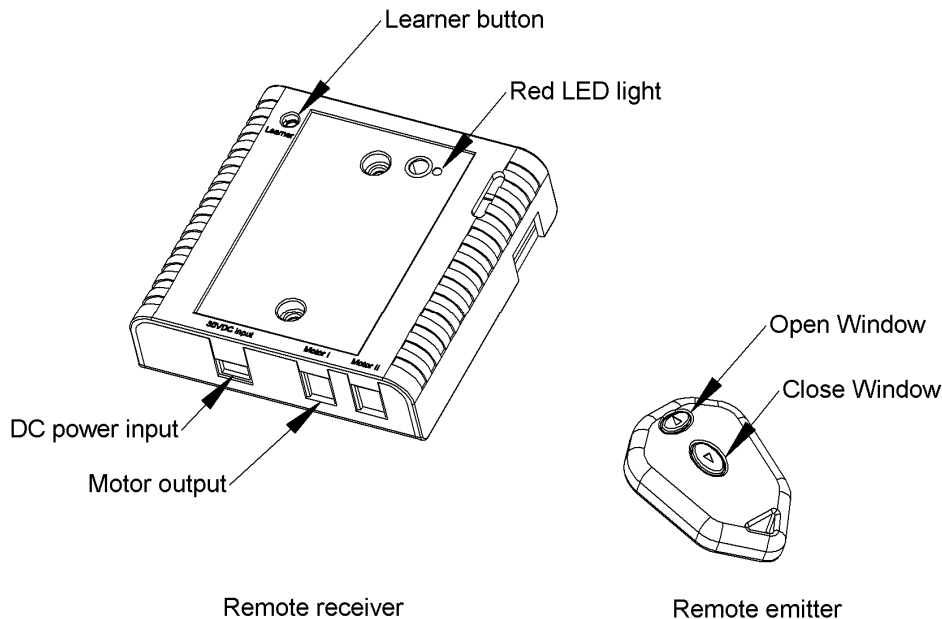

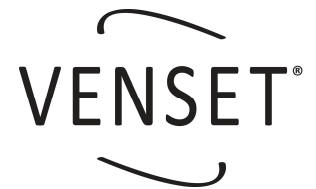

Installation

- o connect the power supply and the motor unit to the remote receiver. 2 different plug sizes make this connection only possible to make in the right way
- o after having connected the plugs, the blue light will be lightning
- o push the emitter buttons and the motor unit will open and close
- o for stopping the motion one of the buttons need to be pushed
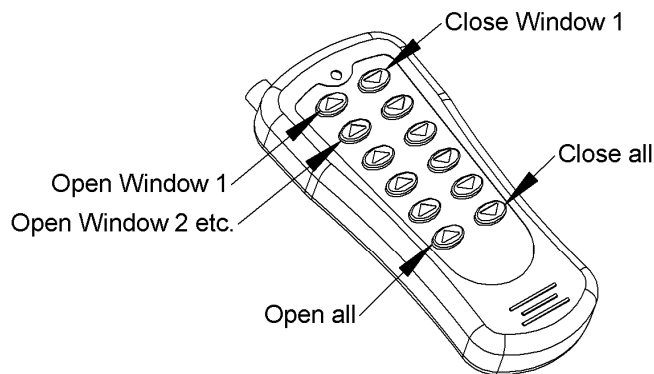

Learning

- o if the remote receiver do not respond when pushing the emitter buttons, reset the receiver and follow the instruction below
- o push the learner button on the receiver for less than 1 sec.
- o push one of the emitter buttons
- o the red LED light will start flashing
- o push one of the emitter buttons again and the red light will turn off
- o the units now are coded together with a unique code

Reset

- o push and hold down the learner button on the receiver for 10 sec. (will be reset when the red light turns off).

Trouble shooting

- o check the plug connections
- o check whether the blue light is on
- o reset the receiver and make a new coding

5 channel remote emitter

Labels on the remote:
- Close Window 1
- Close all
- Open Window 1
- Open Window 2 etc.
- Open all

Installation

- o connect the power supply's and the motor unit's to the remote receiver's. 2 different plug sizes make this connection only possible to make in the right way
- o after having connected the plugs, the blue light will be lightning

Learning

- o choose the receiver, which need to be activated by first row of buttons (Window 1).
- o push the learner button on the receiver for less than 1 sec.
- o push button "Open Window 1"
- o the red LED light will start flashing
- o push any button and the red light will turn off
- o the units now are coded together with a unique code
- o do the same for Receiver 2, 3 etc.

Reset

- o push and hold down the learner button on the receiver for 10 sec. (will be reset when the red light turns off).

Trouble shooting

- o check the plug connections
- o check whether the blue light is on
- o reset the receiver and make a new coding